

CURE

Community Understanding for Racial and Ethnic Equality

Mary Crisalli Sansone, Founder
Matthew W. Daus, President

Please join us for a very special

Symposium

"A Formula for Building Bridges with New Neighbors"

Date: Friday, October 29, 2004
Time: 8:30 am to 1:00 pm
Location: Long Island University – Brooklyn Campus
1 University Plaza, Brooklyn, NY 11201

Complimentary Breakfast and Refreshments

Invited Speakers: Hon. Michael R. Bloomberg, Mayor, New York City
Dr. Benjamin Chu, President, NYC Health & Hospitals

Join community leaders and representatives from diverse cultures and backgrounds for an open discussion promoting and achieving racial, ethnic and religious tolerance, so that we can all live together in peacefulness and mutual respect.

RSVP: By telephone (718) 436-7270 or website www.curenyc.com

Panelists	Community	Panelists	Community
John Abi -Habib	Arab	Alex Martin, Esq.	Indian
Jacque Friedman	Jewish	Dr. Joseph Mattera	Hispanic
Eddie Gonzalez	Hispanic	Dr. Carmela Sansone	Italian
Bishop David Hartman	African American	Swaranjit Singh	Sikh
Alec Brook-Krasny	Russian	Harpreet Singh-Toor	Sikh
Tariq Khokar	Pakistani	Dr. Lydio Tomassi	Italian
Andrew Kim	Korean	Father Thomas Zain	Arab
Rene Lobo	Indian

CURE is a not-for-profit tax exempt organization that promotes understanding, tolerance and equality among all people through community organization and education.

C.U.R.E. Inc., 5816 13th Avenue, Brooklyn, NY 11219